Reasoning behind new evaluation management model

Too many evaluations per year

- High administrative burden to administration and beneficiaries
- Evaluation market too small to cover everything

Parallel evaluations

- Possibly same topics covered – waste of resources, less added value

Difficulties to reach high political level

- Implementation of strategic recommendation a challenge
- A lot of useful knowledge may remain unused
- Lack of evidence-based information for decision makers

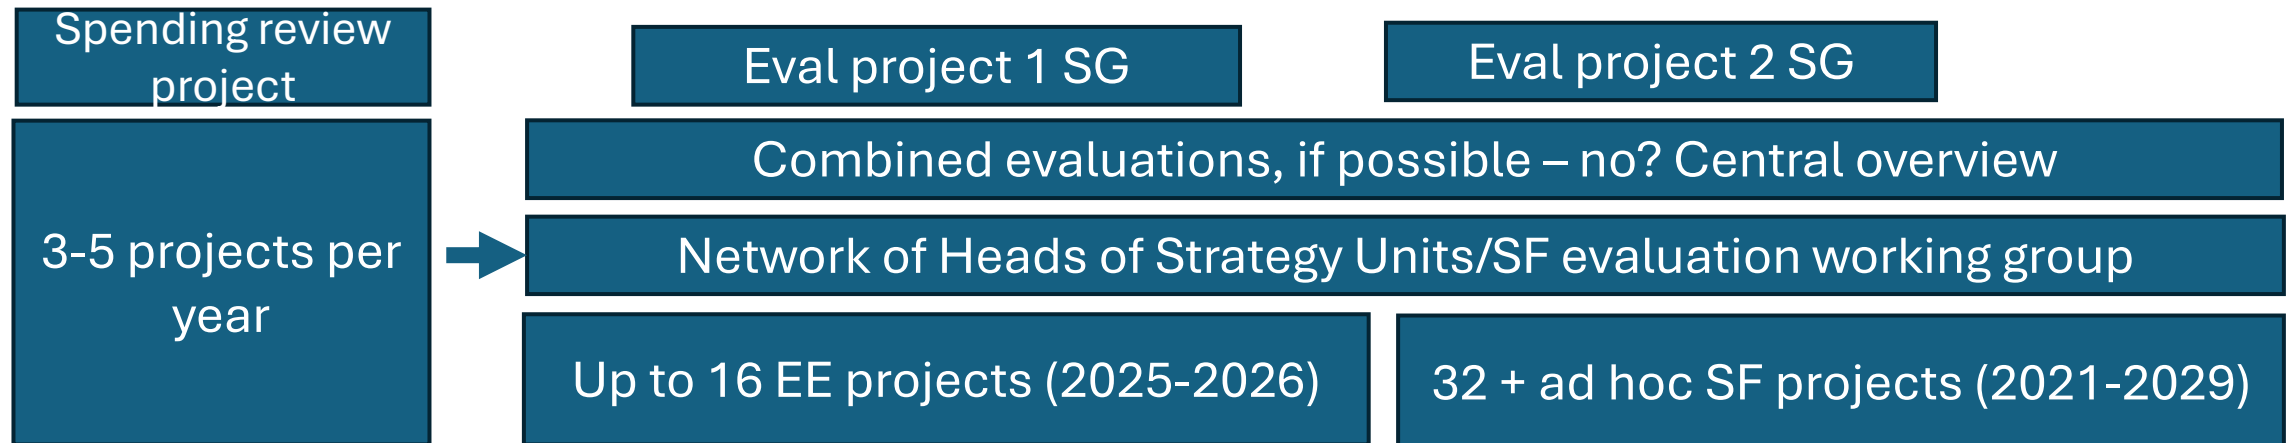

Lack of input

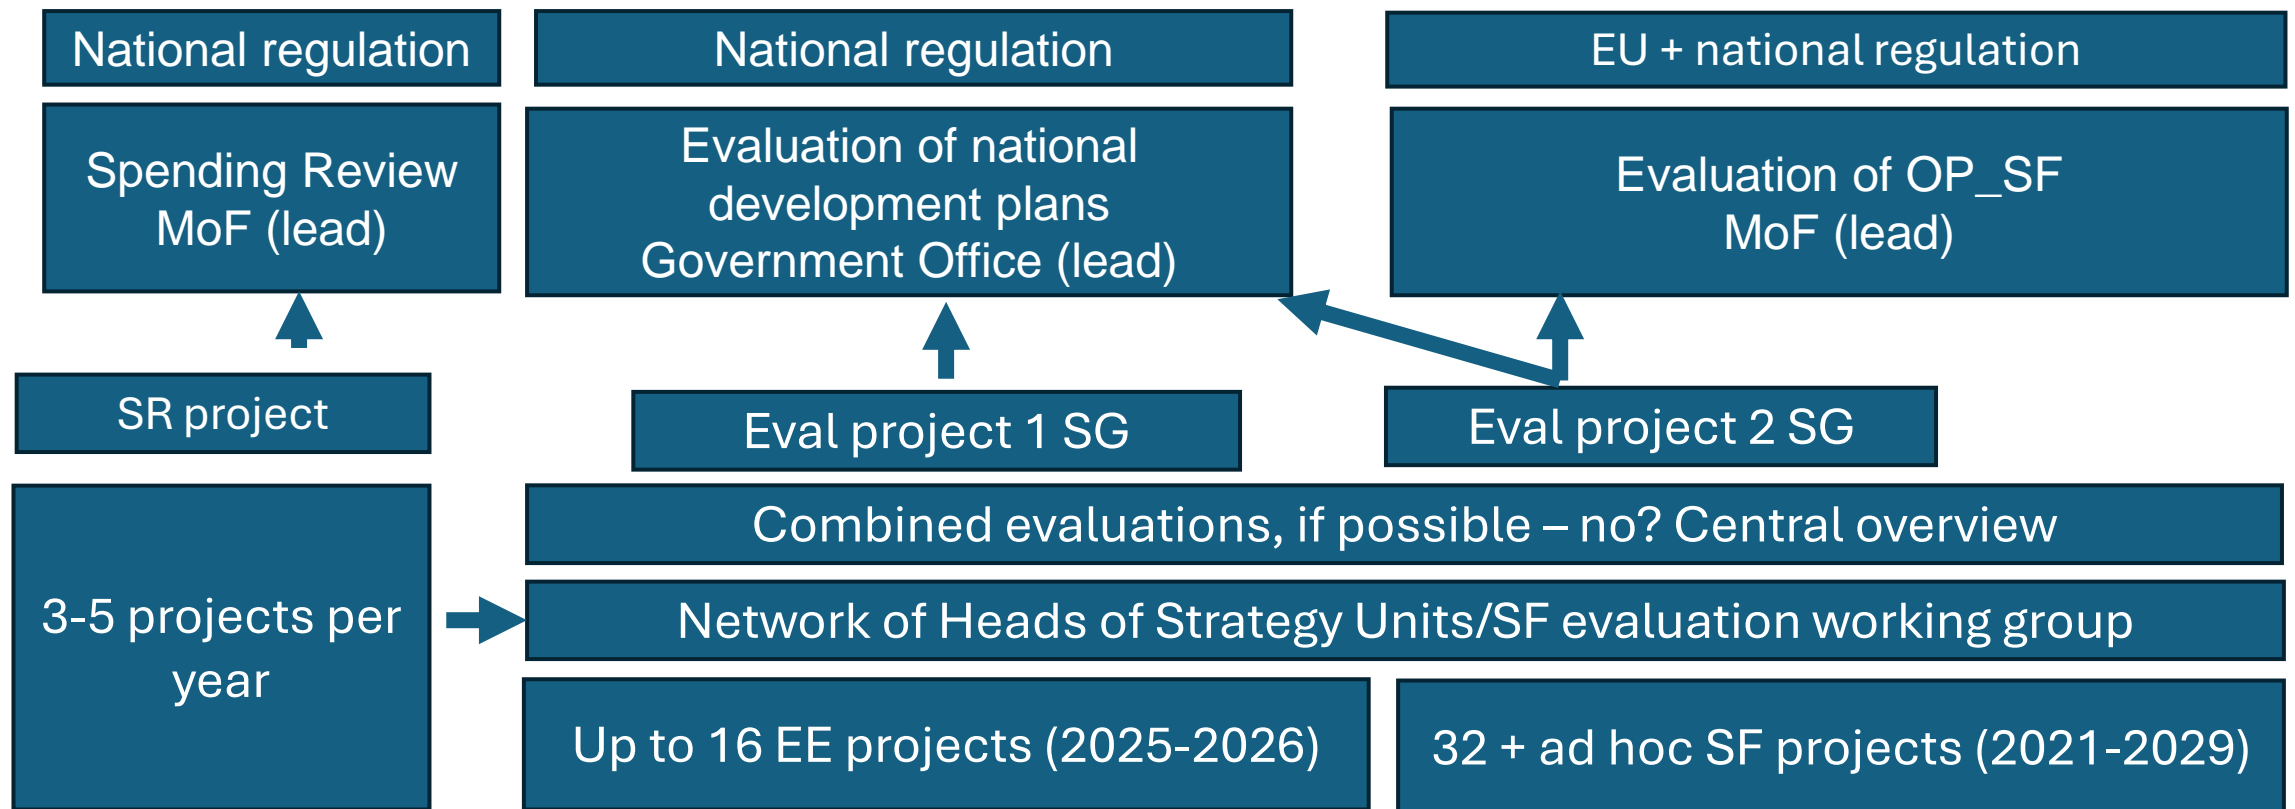

- While preparing evaluation plan, intervention logic from one evaluation to new one
- While conducting spending reviews

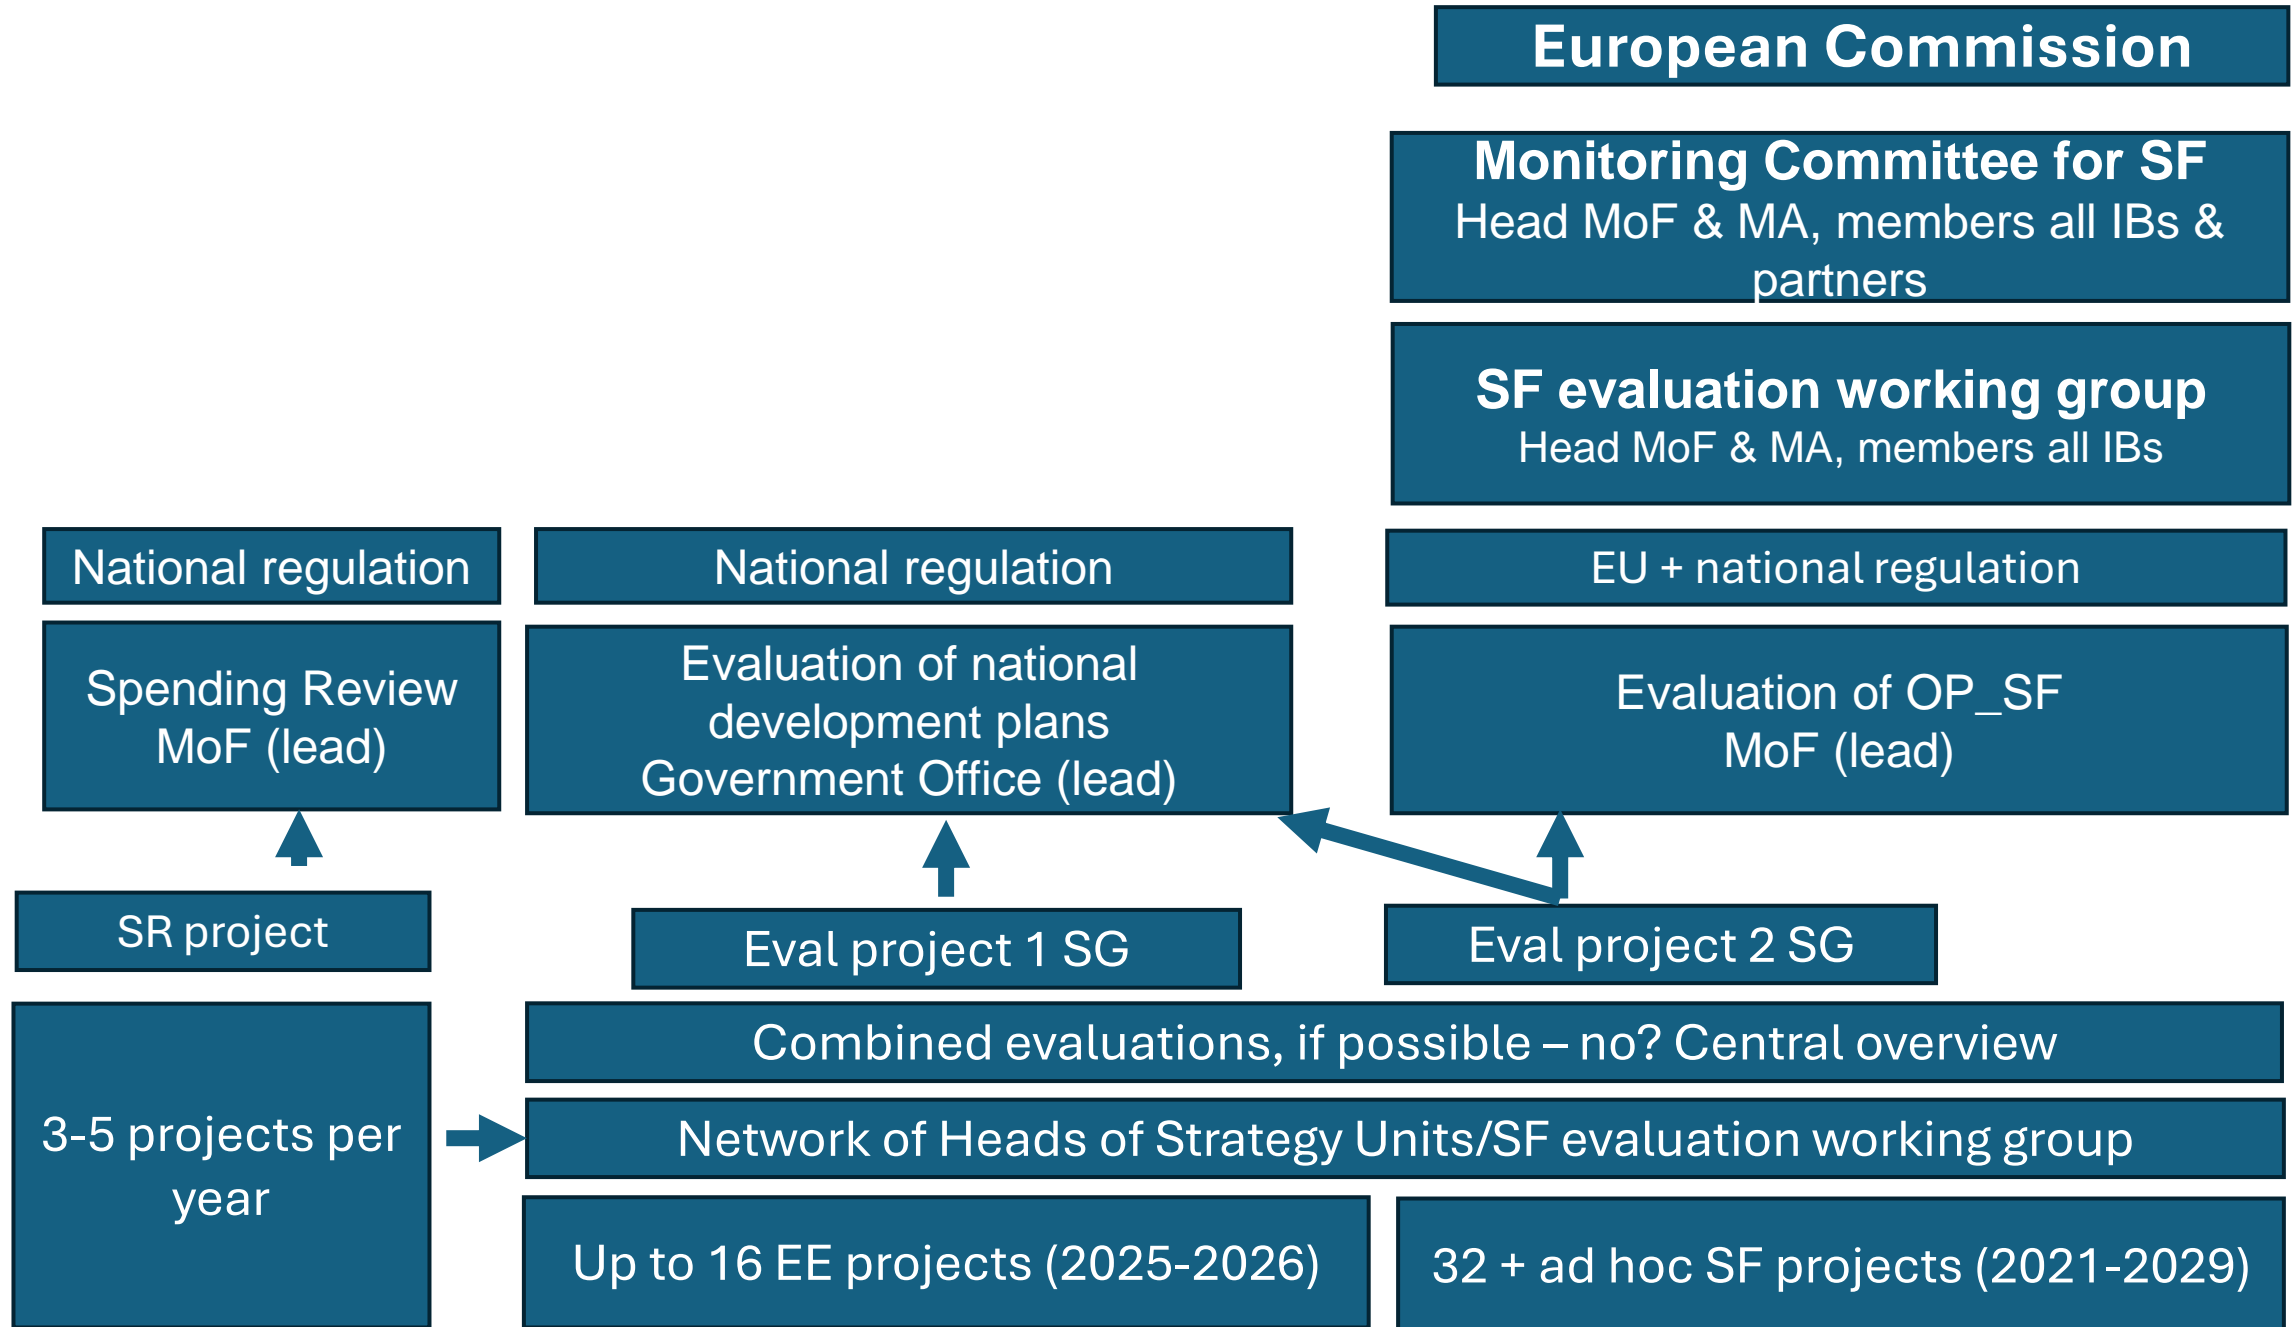

Confusion

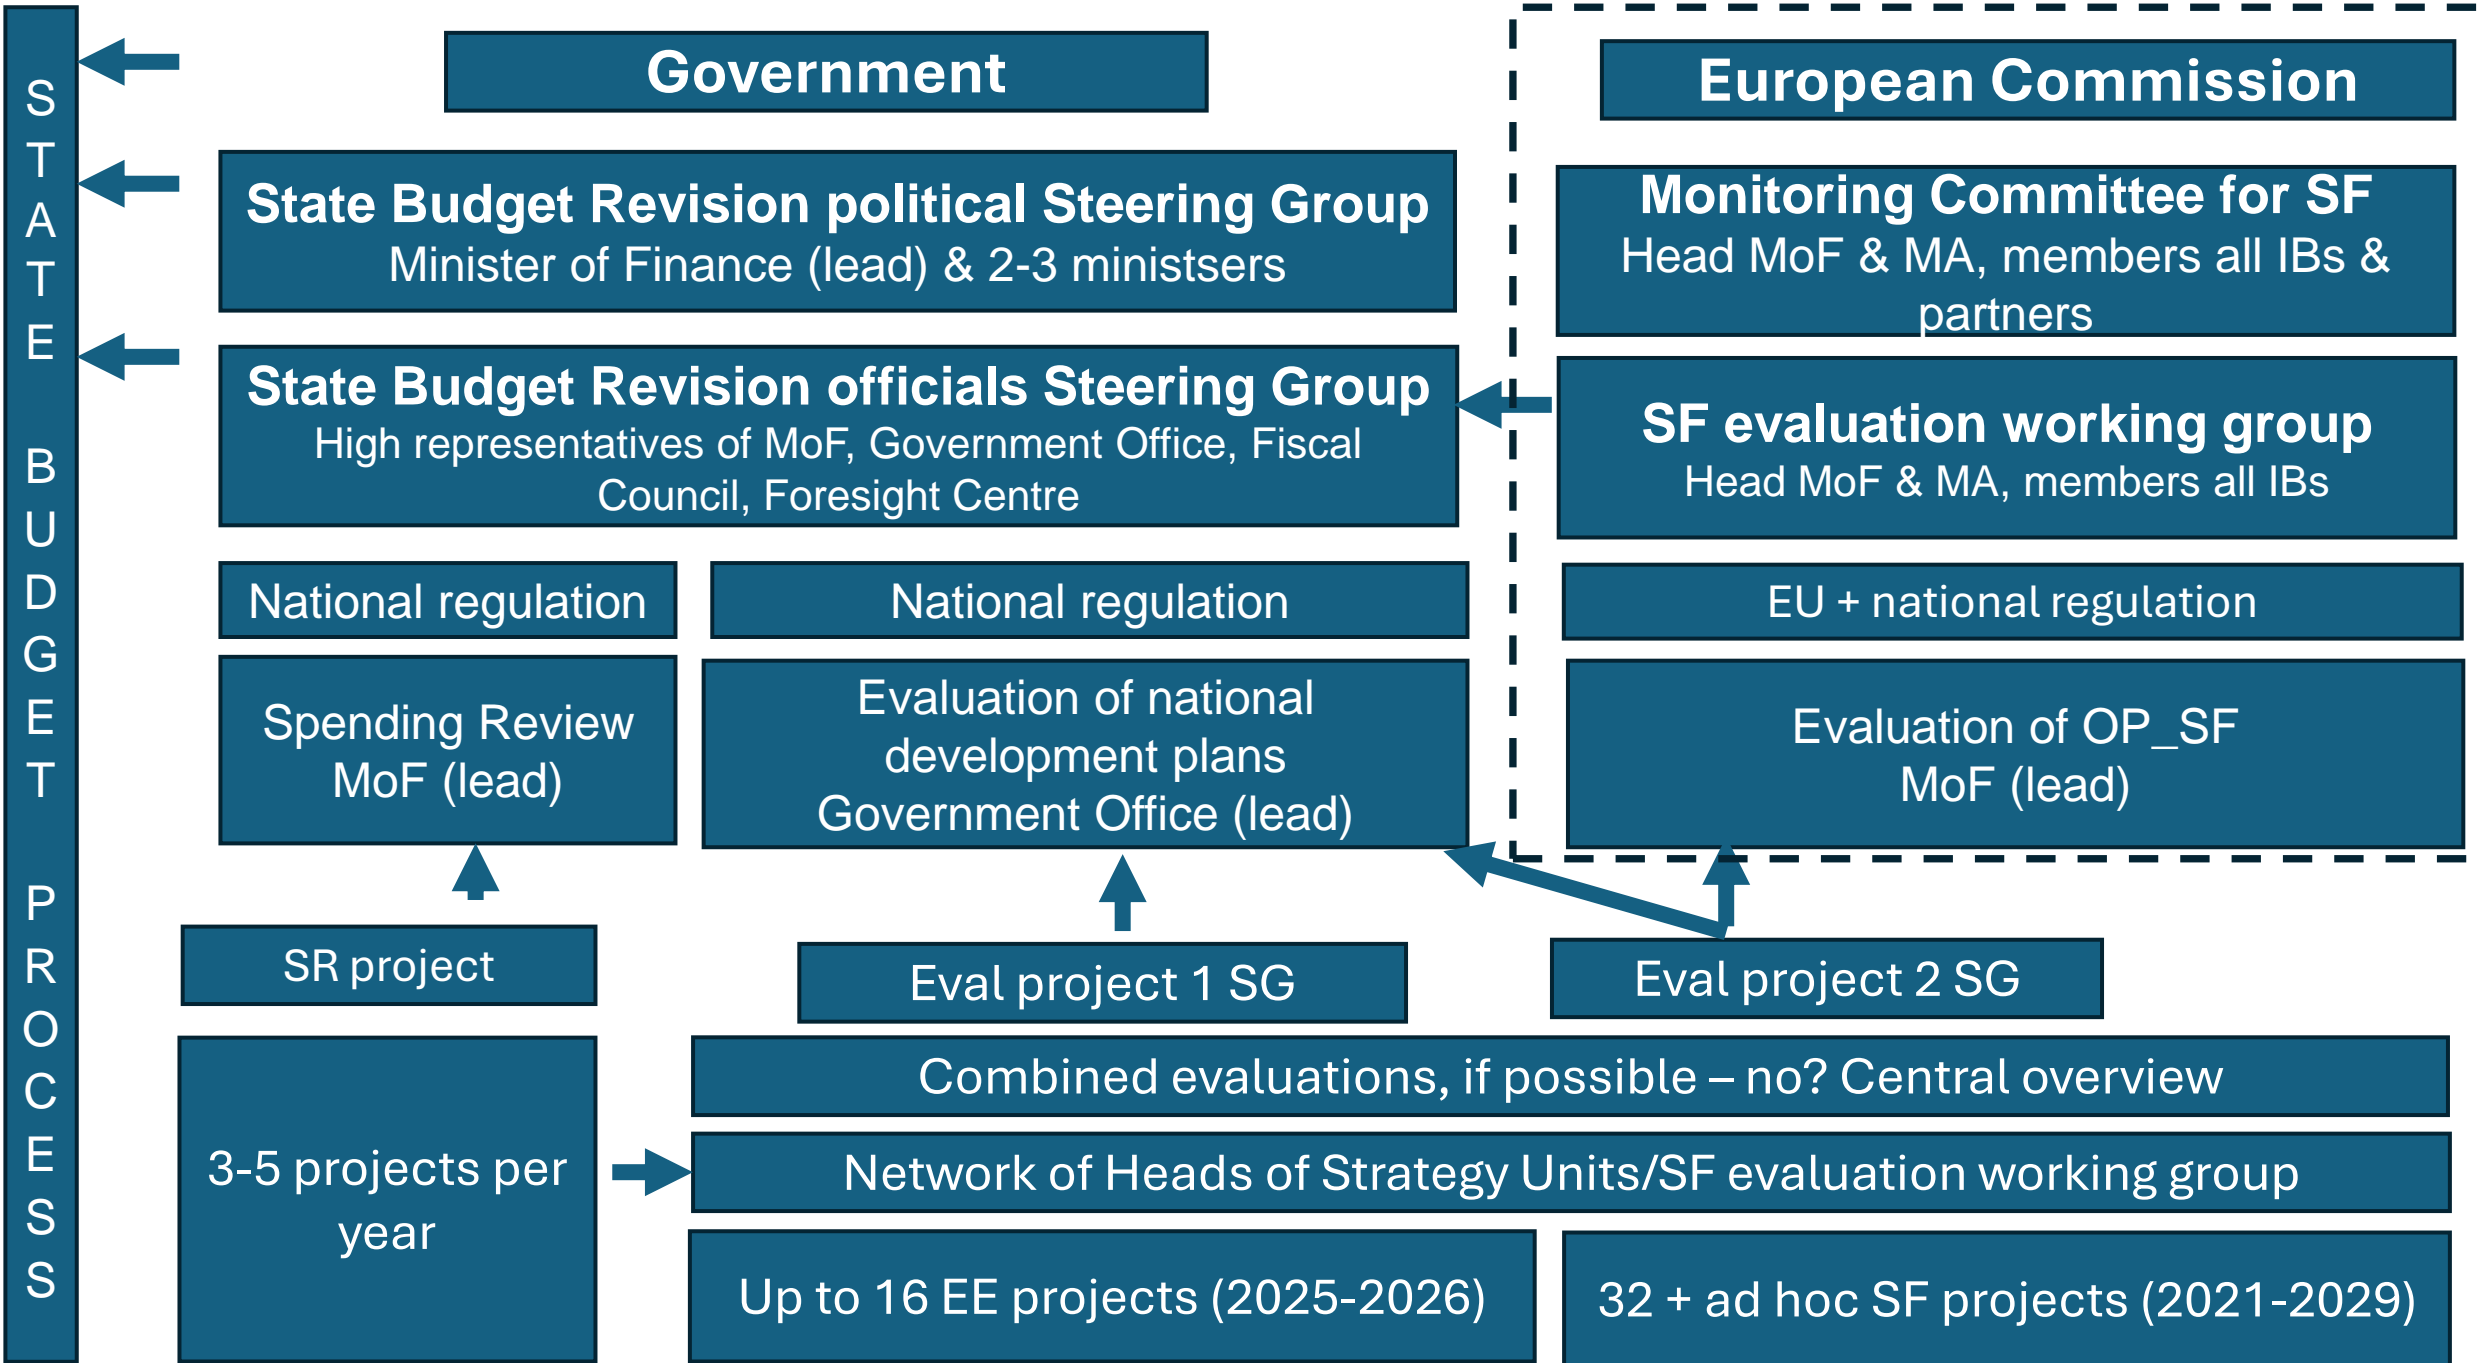

- Evaluation and efficiency criterion
- Spending review and efficiency criterion

Evaluation management model – evaluation as integral part on State Budget Review process
